INTRODUCTION

Just as with our wines, we believe that our search for quality spirits and liqueurs should often take us off the beaten track. The last few years have therefore seen our selection of spirits producers grow to a more eclectic, highly sought-after mix which has become a branch of the Astrum portfolio in its own right.

It is perhaps due to such a vibrant gastronomical and enological culture, that Italy's fascinating ancient tradition of spirits and liqueurs is often overlooked. As early as the 13th Century, liqueurs were made in convents and monasteries and used as herbal remedies and medicines. Although originally kept secret by monks, the recipes were eventually passed down through generations, and families began to make their own spirits or liqueur-based remedies using the ingredients they had to hand. The air of mystery remained however, and even today the best spirits and liqueur recipes are family secrets produced in the small, private distilleries across the country; it is these hidden gems that we have tried to seek out for Astrum Bar. Our bar list now consists of eleven unique producers and covers Agricole Rhum, Limoncello, Brandy, Sambuca, Gin, Vermouth, Aperitivo, Bitters, Grappa, Chinato, China (Amaro) and a variety of stunning liqueurs:

Antica Distilleria Quaglia, chosen due to its insistence on keeping ancient traditions alive, provides Astrum with an enviable assortment of Liqueurs, Grappa's, Bitters, and Vermouths.

Capovilla Distillati owner Vittorio attributes the success of his excellent Grappa and Distillates to the rare, high-quality varieties of fruit used and the bain-marie distilling cycle he employs.

Colazingari Liquori implements the age-old cold infusion method in their production of Sambuca to reach an unprecedented level of refinement and flavour.

Rhum Rhum, organised by Vittorio Capovilla, is an extraordinarily quality-orientated producer collaboration based on an island just off the coast of Guadeloupe, and renowned for using the world's best sugar cane in all of its Agricole Rhums.

Terra di Limoni excels in the production of an artisan Limoncello made only with fresh lemons from the Amalfi Coast.

Villa Zarri uses only the highest quality grapes and considers their discontinuous distillation method essential in the production of their world-class Brandy and Grappa.

Please find overleaf more detailed information on each producer and each product and please contact us if you wish to know more about our range and services.

Finally, we wish to take the opportunity to thank all our clients for their continued support.

ANTICA DISTILLERIA QUAGLIA

Piemonte, Italy

www.distilleriaquaglia.it

Founded in the late 1800's, four generations of the Quaglia family have guided the business through more than a century of artisan production, modernising it where needed whilst cherishing the older, traditional methods of distilling. The distillery was established just after the Unification of Italy in 1871 between Monferrato and the hills towards Turin.

It was Giuseppe Quaglia, the knight, who first purchased the property and in 1906 built a well for water supply and an industrial-sized boiler to produce vapour. His son Carlo, took over the distillery in 1930 adopting and adapting the familial distilling secrets. His main aim was to improve the efficiency of the bottling department and in so doing, he increased the production capacity substantially. The third generation of Distilleria Quaglia (another Giuseppe), began to complement the 'forward-thinking' approach of his ancestors with a more traditional stance and methodology; in 1967 he started to produce particularly refined and highly-prized single-variety grappe but insisted they continue using the original stills from 60 years earlier. The great-grandson of the original Giuseppe (another Carlo!) is the most recent to take over the business. His enthusiasm for the exquisite quality of Quaglia products, is evident in his move to enrich the choice of rare, unique creations without ever overlooking the Distillery's core values of artisanal excellence and the use of high-quality, natural primary products. These beautiful liqueurs and grappas have such purity of flavour, with a perfect balance of intensity and delicacy.

Bèrto is a range of premium quality vermouths, spirits and liqueurs by Antica Distilleria Quaglia. Established in the late 1800's, the Quaglia family have a long history in the Piedmont region of Italy for producing artisan products, drawing from their family recipes and traditions, whilst maintaining contemporary and modernising where needed.

The Bèrto range is a take on these historic recipes. Fourth generation distiller, Carlo Quaglia, uses the finest quality, natural ingredients, the majority of which are locally sourced, to patiently conduct long infusions, releasing maximum flavour whilst sustaining upmost purity of the ingredient. The range includes three gins, a London Dry style, an Old Tom style and a gin aged in Juniper wood. In addition to their traditional Turin vermouths and classic Aperitivo and Bitter. Not does this range offer amazing quality but they are also incredible value for money.

BIRRIFICIO VIA PRIULA

Lombardia, Italy

www.birrificioviapriula.it

Founded in 2010 by two good friends and brewing enthusiasts, Giovanni Fumagalli and Mauro Zilli, Birrificio Via Priula was born from a shared passion for craft beer. Both had been brewing at home for over a decade before deciding to turn their hobby into a commercial venture. Located in San Pellegrino Terme, a commune in Lombardy, Birrificio Via Priula initially started by brewing beer at other breweries as a small passion project, but their beers quickly gained popularity among the craft beer community, winning several awards in national and international competitions. So, in 2018, the brewery was officially established with the completion of a 100-hectolitre fully automated brewing cellar. As their reputation grew, so did their capacity, and today the brewery has expanded its storage to 460 hectolitres.

The name "Via Priula" comes from an ancient 16th-century trade route that connected the provinces of Bergamo and Sondrio, reflecting Giovanni and Mauro's commitment to telling the story of their local region. The brewery sources all its ingredients locally from farms in the Brembana Valley. Today, Birrificio Via Priula produces 12 different beers, including a stout, american pale ale, pilsner, blonde, wheat, and fruit beers – continuing to expand their bottlings each year.

In line with their commitment to sustainability, Birrificio Via Priula is part of the Green Priula initiative, which focuses on reducing their environmental impact. The brewery is powered entirely by sustainable and renewable energy, thanks to solar panels installed on the roof. Additionally, they focus on generating minimal waste, the by-products of the brewing process are donated to local farmers for use as animal feed or fertiliser, and even local residents use the remnants to create baked goods such as muffins, focaccia, and pizza dough.

Many in Italy believe Capovilla to be the single best producer of Grappa in the country and we very much agree. Since 1986, the estate has been based in the beautiful old cellars of Villa Dolfin Boldù in Rosa', near Bassano del Grappa, close to Vicenza.

Owner Vittorio Capovilla has chosen to distil his Grappa using small stills that he has especially built for him by a German artisan. He has also chosen to use an artisanal distillation method for his products, via the very high quality bain-marie method, which employs a discontinuous distilling cycle. This means that at the end of every boiling cycle of the marc or pomace, the cycle must be interrupted and the pot emptied and refilled with other new marc or pomace. The discontinuous cycle still can be of three types (direct fire, bain marie and flowing steam) depending on the manner by which the pomace or marc is warmed up, and the bain marie method, though slow and labour-intensive, is particularly famous for extracting aromas and flavours that are highly refined and intense.

Capovilla is also well known for his use of very low levels of sulphur dioxide, and of only very ripe fruit grown in high hillside vineyards. Four hectares owned by Capovilla are officially organically farmed, and the estate has gone out of its way to select old varieties of plums, pear and peaches (among other fruits) that are now rare but of very high quality. Capovilla is especially interested in developing Grappa and Eau-de-vie that are not just fragrant and perfumed, but also full-bodied and rich.

All of Capovilla's products are hand bottled and hand labelled.

COLAZINGARI LIQUORI

Lazio, Italy

www.colazingariliquori.it

Colazingari's products are textbook examples of the art of liqueur production through the century old tradition of cold infusion, by which liqueurs of much greater refinement and depth of flavour are produced.

Colazingari has more than two centuries of tradition behind it and the company's headquarters are still located in Alatri, one of south-eastern Lazio's most charming towns.

The secret recipes it uses to make its liqueurs, are drawn on centuries of experience and many of these products are considered the best of their respective classes. Sambuca, made from anise and other ingredients such as elderberry, star anise and licorice, is the most famous product made, and is a staple of Italian life, traditionally enjoyed with an espresso bean or added to coffee. However, Colazingari's Samuca are best appreciated all on their own, just like a fine Brandy or Cognac.

The origin of this famous drink's name is debated: for some, the name Sambuca derives from an Arabic word, Zammut, which was the name of an anise-flavoured drink that arrived to the port of Civitavecchia by ships coming from the East. Others believe that the term derives from the Latin word sambucus, meaning "elderberry".

MR. QUAIL & J.T

Piemonte, Italy

www.distilleriaquaglia.it

Mr. Quail & J.T is a range of pre-mixed cocktails from Antica Distilleria Quaglia in collaboration with the world famous Jerry Thomas Project, Rome. A project named after the 'father of American mixology' Jeremiah Thomas (1830-1885), who popularized cocktails and developed elaborate techniques for mixing them which incorporated a certain showmanship; a vital element of mixology even today. He was also the first person to ever to publish a book about cocktails 'How to mix drinks' in 1862, making him the inventor of the cocktail book and the formal cocktail recipe. The Project is not just a tribute to Jerry Thomas however, it is also a rediscovery of forgotten Italian spirits, a celebration of prohibition drinks with an Italian twist and an advocate for high quality products made with high quality raw Italian ingredients.

Using Antica Distilleria Quaglia's traditional artisanal products, Mr. Quail & J.T's cocktail range includes a classic Negroni, Amenciano, Vermouth Cocktail and Martinez, each finished with a light barrel ageing, bringing a softness and well-rounded finish to this exquisite line of products.

RHUM RHUM

Marie Galante, Guadeloupe

www.capovilladistillati.it

Rhum Rhum is an amazing project and an unbelievably good Rhum born out of the collaboration between Luca Gargano of the Velier importing company, Vittorio Capovilla master distiller, and the Bielle distillery located on Marie-Galante, a small very rural island just off the coast of Guadeloupe.

The quality of this Rhum Agricole is beyond belief, and is the direct result of the painstaking care that is taken to ensure a product of the highest quality possible. Amongst the secrets of the unique Rhums that carry the "Rhum Rhum" label are the use of the best sugar cane known, the almost mythical Canne rouge B47.259, an almost unheard of five days of fermentation of its juices, and the alambics used for the double distillation procedure, specifically designed by Capovilla and made by a the German artisan Muller. The Rhum Rhum is perfumed and deep, with hints of orange peel, caramel and nuts, while the Liberation, aged in used French oak barriques that once stored famous French wines such as Chateau d'Yquem is a much softer, richer incredibly complex spirit, that will remind you of vanilla, cinnamon, white chocolate, sweet spices and herbs and will linger impressively for minutes.

SAMAROLI

Edinburgh, The United Kingdom

<http://www.samaroli.it/>

Samaroli; one of the most prominent names in the world of whisky. A company with a rich history, stretching back over 49 years. This for us, was the natural addition to our bar portfolio, further showcasing our endearment and admiration for the unique and wondrous Italian spirits industry.

The Samaroli legacy began in 1968 when they re-casked a selection of rare and renowned single malts and vatted whiskies into new oak, transforming them with age and their trademark artistic labels. The resulting whiskies have increased depth, complexity and flavour, incomparable to any other. Samaroli is recognized as the first “non-British” company in history to bottle single cask whiskeys in this way and became undoubtedly one of the most acclaimed and influential spirits importers in Italy. More recently the company also started working with high quality single cask and blended Rums from South America. The maturation period for both the rums and the whiskies takes place in Scotland, where the cool climate allows a perfect environment for the spirits to age.

In 2008 Antonio Blevé, who had been collaborating with Samaroli for many years, took charge as Samaroli’s master blender and CEO. An admirer of the company’s philosophy, Blevé continues to create unique products to the standards of excellence set by his predecessors. Blevé also has a passion for blending the flavours of mature spirits with that of the power of young ones, with the aim of rebuilding the soul of the spirit but in keeping with the philosophy of aging. These blends are proving an exquisite addition to their already outstanding portfolio. And at the same time he continues on the mission to work with elite spirits, to produce very special casks destined for “single” offerings, sought after by whisky enthusiasts from around the world.

Limoncello is a world famous liqueur made with lemons that is immensely attractive due to its bright yellow colour and intense perfume of lemons. That said, few Limoncello bottlings are the product of truly high quality artisan productions.

For the joy of spirits lovers everywhere, the De Riso family, owner since 1927 of the Costieragrumi company that selects and sells the famous lemon of the Costa d'Amalfi, bought in 2002 a small artisanal laboratory specialized in the production of high quality liqueurs since 1986. The Limoncello is made by using only the skins of the "Limone Costa d'Amalfi" variety of lemon, without the addition of any aromas, colouring agents or preservatives. If you have never tried a high quality Limoncello, this is your chance to drink a truly fantastic and unique Italian liqueur.

Conscious of environmental impact and with strong ethical values, Tinkture is a project paved by passion and the desire to make cleaner alcohol. Founder, Hannah Lamiroy's idea was to create a pure, clean product, without the use of additives commonly used in spirits production such as sweeteners, colours, concentrates and chemicals, whilst using premium quality, organically grown ingredients.

Tinkture Rose Gin however was a product of experimentation. Described by Hannah as a "happy accident", she explored many flavour combinations before she came across David Austin roses. David Austin and his family have been growing roses in the UK since 1961. Supplier to the royal household, his English roses are renowned for their fragrance and beauty. Using these fresh rose petals, that are then organically grown and hand picked, Hannah created a unique Gin with a beautifully fresh and fragrant rose petal flavour, warmth, depth and delicacy. Worlds apart from the confected, overly perfumed flavour that rose based products are normally associated with.

Tinkture Rose Gin is hand crafted in small batches. Using strictly fresh ingredients means the Gin can subtly differ from season to season, batch to batch, a phenomenon they embrace much like a vintage for wine. Aiming for a circular rather than linear consumption, the beautiful bottles alongside their refill pouches were designed to encourage consumers to re-use them, rather than throw them away or recycling them.

Hannah describes the Rose Gin as "A classic London Dry style gin, with one key purpose.. to let the Rose sing!". It is extremely versatile, a brilliant twist to many classic cocktail recipes. Or simply mixed with tonic, from a deep amber colour emerges a very pretty, vibrant, light pink! They call this a Tink and Tonic and its absolutely wonderful.

VILLA ZARRI

Emilia Romagna, Italy

www.villazarri.com

Though it may surprise you, Italy is not just about wine, and Villa Zarri excels at an important Italian tradition few are aware of: the making of world class spirits such as Brandy. Indeed, many experts believe Villa Zarri Brandy to be the best made in Italy today.

Villa Zarri makes its Brandy from high quality wine made from Trebbiano Toscano and Trebbiano Romagnolo, which needs to be perfectly clear, low in sulphide content (if not the distillation procedure risks bringing out unpleasant odours and flavours), high in acidity and resistant to oxidation. However, high quality grapes and wine are not enough to guarantee a world class spirit, and at Villa Zarri the all-important discontinuous distillation method is employed, using copper Charentais still that ensures a final product of much deeper, cleaner and richer aromas and flavours. The Brandy is aged in small 350 litre French oak (Limousin and Allier) barrels.

There are many different brandies available from Villa Zarri, but our favourite is the Traditional 10 Year Old Blend, made up of a blend of distilled spirits of different years and ageings and the 21 Year Old Blend Vintage Brandy, made from a blend of four Brandies all from 1988. While the 10 Year Old Blend is more delicate and floral, with delicate sweet spicy accents, the 21 Year is a marvelously complex effort redolent in chestnut honey, vanilla and licorice nuances.

Villa Zarri also makes a stellar Nocino, or walnut liqueur, made by steeping high quality alcohol with organically-grown walnuts, cloves, cinnamon, sugar and water for roughly sixty days.

Last but not least, don't miss out on visiting the beautiful main building of Villa Zarri, a must-see (it's open to the public and is the site of concerts and art exhibits) which dates back to 1578 and was built by the Marquis Nerio Lorenzo Pietro Angelelli "...upon returning from his travels to distant lands".
