(Rocca di Pietra Longa 2024)

“Attractive and intense aromas of hawthorn, broom and various aromatic herbs. Its sapidity, notable freshness and considerable lengthening are striking. The texture is material and tells a unique story.”

90 points, Alessandra Piubello, Decanter (May 2026)

(Carricante Teatro Cajo 2022)

“Minerally, stony quince fruit with top notes of spice. Lots of acidity embedded in viscous white fruit. Long, lemony and full. Enormously long and the oak note perfectly integrated in the fruit.”

17.5 points, Walter Speller, JancisRobinson.com (July 2025)

Under the banner of Libera Terra, Centopassi cultivate land and vineyards that have been confiscated from the Mafia. Centopassi is the viticultural soul of the social cooperatives.

All their vineyards are organically farmed and certified and are located in the Belice Corleonese, a site particularly suited to the production of high quality wines. The soils are rich in calcaire, and the vines are located high enough above sea level to keep them fresh and interesting. Yields are kept extremely low. Centopassi comprises of 94 hectares of confiscated Mafia land turned vineyards.

The brave work undertaken by Centopassi helps create lawful work for locals and ensures good wages in addition to benefits access, such as, healthcare and pensions Not only is this project exceedingly noble but the wines are fantastic too. These products allow customers the ability to support this cause and aid in the breaking the mafias local control.
