lagar de Costa

(Albariño 2019) "Lemon grass and dried pineapple with some honey and stone notes. It's medium-bodied with an oily undertone and a tangy finish. Plenty going on here. Drink now." 92 points, James Suckling (October 2020)

(Albariño Calabobas 2015) "A steely, fresh white with dried-apple and pear aromas and flavors. Crushed cement as well. It's medium-bodied with lovely fruit and a clean, tempting finish. Dried mangoes and pineapples, too. Drink now." 93 points, James Suckling (October 2020)

Rias Baixas, Spain

www.lagardecosta.com

Lagar de Costa is small family run winery located on the Atlantic shore, opposite the island of La Toja in the heart of the Salnes. Lagar de Costa has a long tradition of growing Albariño which goes back to the beginning of the 20th century, but it has only been bottling its fruit since 2001.

Some of the vineyards are more than 50 years old and yields are kept well below the DO average. The soil is predominantly sandy and the ocean influence keeps the temperature at a yearly average of 14 degrees.

The production of their Albariño undergoes rigorous control in both the vineyards and cellars. Only the best selection of grapes go to make up the final wine. In the winery, traditional process and values are partnered with modern techniques to ensure the highest quality product. This is a true expression of this exciting grape varietal, which offers depth, exuberant floral character and minerality.
